

HI TIGERS ARE READY FOR GAME

Local Eleven to Meet Deming Saturday Afternoon; Improves Speed.

When the Deming high school football eleven receives the El Paso Tigers in the New Mexican city on Saturday afternoon it will be looking for an even faster exhibition than resulted in the first contest between the two teams. Judging from the preliminary work of the El Paso boys who are practicing daily at the stadium.

Has Some New Ones.
Coach Luther Coblenz is working on a variety of new shifts, which he believes will result in a substantial score over the Deming team. Since returning to their home town the New Mexicans have also been doing some consistent training and in their last game against the motor transport team from Camp Cody, they won handily and showed an improvement in both speed and condition.

The Deming team has one of the strongest lines in the southwest and with a little more teaching it could be made fit for any high school team in this section.

Seriousness at the high school Monday afternoon was productive of quite a number of good plays. The second team showed much strength both in the line and backfield, and it is safe to say that quite a number of second string men will be in the lineup when coach Coblenz leads the way to the upper valley city.

So far this season the strength of the school team has depended entirely upon its reserves and the eleven is more than fortunate in having a second line of defense with which to bolster the battle line when needed.

BRENNAN WINS BOAT.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 18.—(AP)—Brennan, Chicago heavyweight, outclassed Andy Schneider, of Omaha, to such a degree in their scheduled six round bout Monday night that the referee stopped it in the fourth round. The Omaha boxer was very weak when the referee stepped between the men.

English Heavyweights Fight Shy of Fighting Qualities of Fred Fulton; Big American Finds It Impossible To Get Bouts With Carpentier, Beckett and Joe Goddard

Bombardier Wells Plans a Comeback; Knocks Out Preliminary Boxer.

By JACK VERHOEF.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—It is becoming apparent that the little genius of the British Isles do not want any of Fred Fulton's game. Since the lanky American plater put the sea on Arthur Townley in something less than two minutes the English heavies have been sidestepping Fred faster than a German diplomat sidesteps responsibility for the war.

Was After Dough.
Fulton went overseas eager to fight and with a great yearning to clean up a flock of pounds sterling. He thought he would have little difficulty in getting battle. He didn't at first. He was matched with Townley soon after his arrival and he was forced to knock out his opponent in the very first round. Whereupon, the English heavies, who have found it expedient to be unavailable for a contest with lanky Fred, Fulton is disgraced and is starting for home. He expects to arrive in the States about Thanksgiving, according to cable advice.

Just by way of showing how hard up England is for boxing talent, Bombardier Wells is also planning a comeback. The Bombardier apparently never heard of Jim Griffin, Jess Willard and other famous comebacks. Anyhow, Wells started his comeback a couple of weeks ago by taking on a great second, Jack Curphey, of England. He kicked Mr. Curphey, however, he—in two rounds, whereupon, satisfaction as awarded a crowded house, according to one of the British sports writers.

It is difficult to see how Bombardier Wells can throw anyone into a state of helter-skelter satisfaction. Most everyone in the British Isles and elsewhere has bettered Bombardier since he was a contender, and they never have been matched.

Goddard Did Not Occupy.
There is quite a bit of "transatlantic flavor" about the Wells-Curphey match. Lovers like Louie McHardy, writing in the Evening Standard, the flavor was revealed by an announcement by Fred Fulton that he would take on Frank Goddard anytime before November 11 and bet $1000 to $10 that he would beat him.

Regarding the whole affair the Evening Standard expert wrote: "The result of the match at Billy Wells' fortunes has swung back again, as of yore. In the very same view at the Holborn stadium, where a few months since he suffered a swift and crushing defeat from Joe Beckett, he bested Jack Curphey in two rounds, and now he is to fight Goddard, the American.

George Carpentier

Bill Brennan

freed a swift and crushing defeat from Joe Beckett, he bested Jack Curphey in two rounds, and now he is to fight Goddard, the American.

This trial, by the way, were concerned in a little game of bluff which was played by the English and American promoters but which need not be taken too seriously. Before Wells' return to the ring, he was considered the favorite to win, but he was willing to meet Goddard any time before November 11, and he was willing to bet $1000 to $10 that he would beat him.

Goddard at the ringside smiled and was not to be drawn, despite the urgent pleading of his promoter, Beckett, a trifle amused, I thought.

MAY BE SHAKUP IN SOU. LEAGUE

Magnates Quarrel Over Player Sold to Connie Mack's Athletics.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 18.—There is going to be a great shakeup in the Southern Baseball association, if indications amount to very much.

The whole trouble is due to a split between Charley Frank, president of the Atlanta club, and John D. Logan, the Mobile chief, and a feud of long standing between Frank and John Heinemann, president of the New Orleans team.

Will Not Give Up.
Frank's trouble with Logan was caused by the refusal of the latter to give up Keller Hasty, a promising young pitcher, loaned to Mobile early in the season. It was by a gentleman's agreement with the Mobile secretary that Frank let Hasty go, with the promise that when Frank called for Hasty's return he would be sent back. But Charley Coleman, the Mobile secretary, resigned to aid Logan, and later when Frank called for the pitcher, Coleman said his signature was not on the deal and that that gave him the right to keep Hasty, who had developed into a very good moundman.

Logan Must Go.
Frank, who has much influence in the league, declares Logan must go, while the latter says he'll stick and it is in a pretty muddy, but the fact remains that Frank won out for pitcher Hasty. The Atlanta club has sold the young pitcher to Connie Mack and Hasty reported during the season just closed.

Neyland To Work In Aggie Contest

Coach McGough, of the New Mexico university announced during his stay here last Saturday that he had arranged for the services of M. E. R. Neyland to coach the Aggie football team in the upcoming contest.

McCourt Wins Match.
Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 18.—Charles McCourt, of Cleveland, defeated Jess Fox, of Cincinnati, 40 to 40, in the first game of the three cushion ball championship tournament Monday. The game went 11 innings. McCourt's high run was 5.

Moore Wins Bout.
Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 18.—Earl Moore, of Memphis, took every round of an eight round no decision bout Monday night with James White, Alabamian, in a ten round no decision bout Monday night, according to newspaper opinion.

Sam Still Fighting.
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 18.—Sam Langford, the Boston "tar baby," knocked out Battling Jim Johnson, of Chicago, in the ninth round of a scheduled ten round fight here Monday night.

Downey Wins One.
Peoria, Ill., Nov. 18.—Bryan Downey, of Columbia, earned a shade over fifty "cents" of La Salle, in a ten round no decision bout Monday night, according to newspaper opinion.

Will Play All Teams.
ON PROPOSED TOUR.—The Buff and Yellow are certainly not seeking the soft spots in their proposed trip. Their preliminary arrangements include games with the strongest teams in the southwest. The teams included in the list are the University of Arizona, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque Indians, New Mexico military institute and the American legion at Huber. The latter team has defeated all the service eleven in the vicinity of Mesquite.

What actually happened regarding the Buff and Yellow was that the Buff and Yellow were to play the Arizona football league. It was decided that there would be no practice of the Buff and Yellow until after the league race was finished, but the Buff and Yellow practice will be held.

There is another very strong reason for believing that the Buff and Yellow will resume practice as a team at once. This lies in the big game which is to be played on Thanksgiving afternoon, between the Buff and Yellow and the Arizona football league. It is well beyond the realm of probabilities, and verging on the impossible, to expect to find his superior.

In the New Mexico military institute-Texas school of mines game Kinnison was opposed to Noble, the giant of the Buff and Yellow. Noble is not the experienced player that Kinnison is. Yet he is a great, powerful youngster, willing football player and game to the core. Had he not possessed these assets he would have been shamed by the magnificent playing of Kinnison. Even with them he was decisively outplayed.

If Kinnison does not make the "all-southwestern" team there will be something radically wrong in the selection. And the same applies to Beckett, the outstanding star of that game.

PANS BEGIN CONSTRUCTION OF ALL-SOUTHWESTERN.
While the subject of an "All-Southwestern" team is discussed, we may properly mention Kinnison, the steel right guard of the New Mexico military institute. Kinnison's equal may possibly be found somewhere among all the schools in the southwest. It is doubtful if it is well beyond the realm of probabilities, and verging on the impossible, to expect to find his superior.

Wilde To Meet Scrapper Sharkey.
